From: Frank G. Kirkpatrick, Interim Dean of the Faculty

Dear Dick and Bob:

One of the privileges of the office I'm temporarily occupying is the opportunity to write a letter like this one. I do so to congratulate you both on behalf of Trinity College on the occasion of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine honoring your long and faithful relation to each other. It is serendipitous and a moment of grace that I as Dean of Faculty can speak for the College in sending you this letter of congratulation.

I am honored to have had such a long friendship with Dick over many years. I am as pleased as I can be that the Cathedral is honoring you and Bob in this way and I want to add Trinity's voice to those which will be congratulating you.

I'm sorry I won't be there on this important day but President James F. Jones will be and I'm asking him to take this letter and give it to you.

Again, my heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Frank G. Kirkpatrick
